1 – Destiny

Destiny, represented by a golden key, opens the doors of your life to you. With this key in hand, you hold the power over everything that happens in your life. You are the master of your destiny; with the key, you are free to choose what you want to do, whom you want to talk to and what you want to experience. The choice is yours.

When you draw the Destiny card, the Belline oracle wants to reveal your power of decision to you. If you are currently facing a question or a problem in your life, Destiny tells you that you alone have the power to change things.

It will not be outside help; no one will step into the equation. You alone have the power to decide whether to open the door or close it again…

2 – The Star of Man

The Star of Man is the card that represents masculinity in the Oracle de Belline. It can represent a real person who is a male figure as well as a masculine character trait.
The father, the brother, the husband, a colleague, a friend or any other kind of male figure will be represented by the Star of Man.

This card also shows masculine values such as virility, protection or strength.

3 – The Woman's Star

The Woman's Star is the card that represents femininity in the Oracle de Belline. It can represent a real person who is a female figure as well as a feminine character trait.
The mother, the sister, the wife, a colleague, a friend or any other kind of female figure will be represented by the Woman's Star.

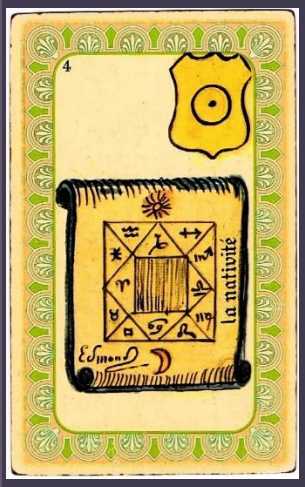

This card also shows feminine values such as gentleness, spirituality, listening, attentiveness, intelligence, calm, etc…

4 – Nativity

Nativity is an excellent card that announces a new project. It is a very good period for the querent if they want to embark on a new adventure. Their enthusiasm is multiplied tenfold, giving them great energy to carry a new activity through to success.

Nativity gives the querent the strength to try new things by bringing them greater self-confidence and an ease in approaching novelty. The daily routine is shaken up, new seeds are sown and allow new possibilities to grow in every sphere of their life.

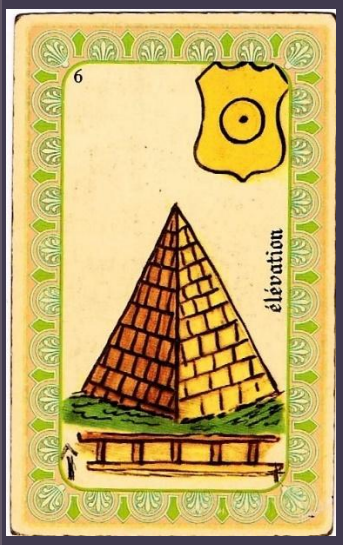

5 – Success

Success is one of the most beautiful cards of the Oracle de Belline. When you draw the Success card in your spread, Belline offers you a lovely reward! A prosperous period lies ahead! All your wishes are finally granted, life is smiling on you! The universe is helping you get what you want. Thanks to hard work on your part, you finally achieve success in your projects! Savour the victory! You fully deserve the recognition you are being given!

6 – Elevation

Following the Success card, Elevation is also one of the most beautiful cards of the Oracle de Belline. When you draw the Elevation card, Belline tells you that you are entering a prosperous period of your life. A momentum is building to help you achieve success. Elevation allows the querent to see their projects through to the end. In love, Elevation speaks of the strengthening of bonds and of a connection with another person. At work, your projects materialise and your money multiplies.

7 – Honours

The Honours card in the Oracle de Belline is one of the most beautiful cards in the deck. Governed by the Sun, the Honours card comes after Success and Elevation. It highlights the recognition and the positive social standing of the querent. When you draw the Honours card, Belline offers you glory and richly deserved rewards. You are entering a prosperous period in which everything smiles on you, and you are recognised for your actions and your work. But be careful: even if luck is on your side, make sure you remain humble in your words and actions.

8 – Thought Friendship

The Thought / Friendship card is the 8th card of the Oracle de Belline. Ruled by the Sun, the Thought/Friendship card is the expression of tenderness and fondness. When drawing this card, the querent is surrounded by loyal friends or by a caring family. The moments spent with loved ones are important. The Thought/Friendship card indicates that happy events may be celebrated with respect for others. New friendships as well as new romantic encounters may take place during this period bathed in tenderness.

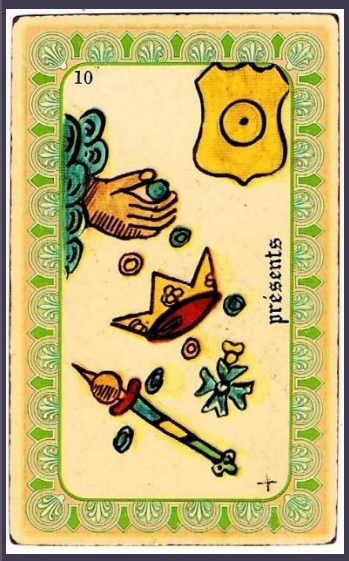

9 – Countryside Health

The Countryside-Health card is the 9th card of the Oracle de Belline and is ruled by the Sun. When the querent draws this card, Belline tells them that it is time to take a break. This is not the moment to rush but to recharge one's whole being. Whether at work or in love, the Countryside-Health card recommends going with the flow and letting go of external problems. Clearing the mind will allow the querent to find answers to their questions.

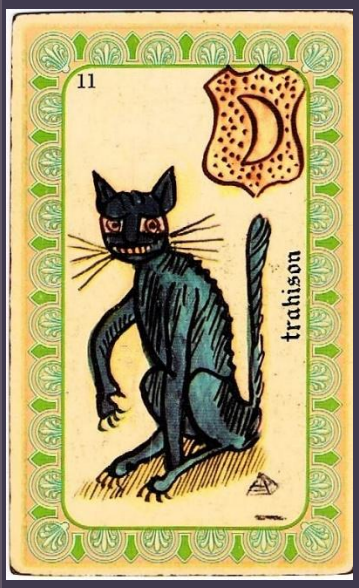

10 – Gifts

The Gifts card is one that every querent dreams of drawing! In 10th position in the Oracle de Belline, the Gifts card invites happiness into the life of whoever draws it! Luck finally arrives, and the querent is showered with wonderful presents upon discovering this card! In professional life, a nice promotion or congratulations are to be expected, while in private life, new encounters will bring happiness to the querent! What more could you ask for?

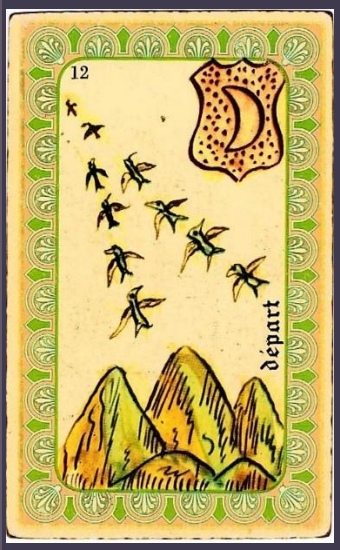

11 – Betrayal

The Betrayal card is one of the worst cards in the deck. Placed within the Moon family in the Oracle de Belline, the Betrayal card calls for distrust. Doubts are heightened and the querent must take care to remain cautious in their actions and words. So be careful whom you confide in and whom you meet. Smooth talkers are not always easy to recognise. This card also announces a jealous temperament; you must keep things in perspective and learn to untangle truth from falsehood.

12 – Departure

The Departure card is a beautiful card if we know how to interpret it correctly. The 12th card of the Oracle de Belline, Departure gives whoever draws it the strength to set out on a new path in life. It may be a new job, a move to another city or leaving another person to try new adventures. Departure allows the querent to choose where they want to go. In this way, they will be able to find the serenity and the freedom they so long for in their life.

13 – Inconstancy

In the Oracle de Belline, the Inconstancy card has a negative tendency. When you draw this card, the oracle sheds light on the querent's inability to make decisions at the time of the reading. Something is worrying them and they cannot manage to reach a decision about a situation. Night and day, doubts disturb the querent's peace of mind and prevent them from making the right choices. Inconstancy reflects the querent's turmoil and anxieties; during this period it is important to stay calm and to wait before considering any new decisions.

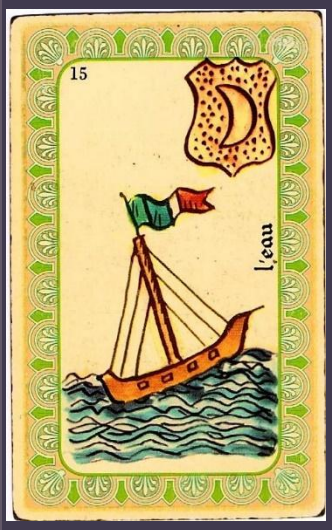

14 – Discovery

The Discovery card is a positive card. The 14th card of the Oracle de Belline allows the querent to understand a situation that is tormenting them. After a period of doubt, they can finally find the answer to their questions. What was obscure is now clear and the querent can finally regain their peace of mind. The mistakes they made in the past are absorbed and understood. Even if the querent has lately been worrying and asking themselves a thousand and one questions, they can finally feel reassured. They hold the key to moving forward serenely and making good decisions.

15 – Water

Water is a card with a double meaning. The 15th card of the Oracle de Belline, Water is the messenger both of travel and of heightened feelings. Water is ruled by the Moon family, the Moon being a shifting celestial body. The Moon has an enormous influence on Water, as we can see in the tides. But it also acts on emotions and on dreams. Who has never felt irritable or slept badly during a full moon? The Water card can therefore indicate a trip to the seaside as well as strong feelings. But be careful: the more intense the emotions, the greater the risk of destruction! This card therefore calls for caution.

16 – Penates

The Penates card is the 16th card of the Oracle de Belline. It is a reassuring card. When the querent draws this card, the Oracle de Belline invites them to recharge in a place that brings joy. It is close to their family that the querent will find peace and serenity again. The Penates often represent roots and the home. The image of the tower on the card represents a safe place where one feels secure. But be careful not to shut yourself away too much: the Penates card invites you to focus on yourself in a place dear to you, without cutting yourself off from the world around you.

17 – Illness

Illness in the Oracle de Belline is a negative card that often comes up when there are conflicts, whether with others or with oneself. Quarrels, manipulation, mental confusion: the Illness card asks you to be careful. Within a relationship, Illness points to arguments with one's partner, sometimes caused by jealousy or by a tyrannical temperament. At work, be wary of the operations you launch; some of your colleagues may want to manipulate you. Move forward slowly and with caution: this is a risky period that you need to get through with calm and reflection.

18 – Change

The Change card is the 18th card of Belline. Ruled by the planet Mercury, the Change card makes way for transformation. When this card is drawn, a breath of fresh air and action enters the querent's life. It is a card that brings great freedom. It can indicate a move or a journey in the most concrete cases, or else a desire to change direction. After a period of reflection or doubt, the Change card reveals the querent's ability to take a new path and live the life they want.

19 – Money

The Money card is the 19th card of the Oracle de Belline. It is a card that is rather favourable to material life in general. When we draw this card, the universe brings us wealth and abundance. Gains and gifts will be sent to the querent, who will be able to make the most of this period of luck. Daily life is improved by concrete and lasting investments. Relationships take root in everyday life and give the querent a more stable life. From a spiritual point of view, whoever draws the Money card will experience great inner wealth.

20 – Intelligence

The Intelligence card is a very beautiful card that brings wisdom and understanding to whoever draws it. The 20th card of the Oracle de Belline, Intelligence often comes up when one must use one's intellectual abilities to carry projects through to success. It is about having confidence and showcasing one's talents, whatever they may be, and success will be greatly favoured. Intelligence is a card of openness, mastery and fulfilment in all areas of life.

21 – Theft Loss

The Theft – Loss card is one of the worst cards of the Oracle de Belline. Influenced by the planet Mercury, it is the symbol of deception and lies. So be vigilant if you draw this card during a reading. Someone close to you will try to do you harm by tricking you. Stay on your guard and trust no one. This is not the time to make financial transactions or to embark on new projects in life. Now is the time for observation: learn to spot the smooth talkers and get away from them as quickly as possible!

22 – Enterprises

The Enterprises card belongs to the family of the planet Mercury in the Oracle de Belline. The 22nd card of the deck, the Enterprises card indicates that the querent is going to commit to a new project. It is a beautiful card that lays the foundations for a new activity or a relationship. Whoever draws this card will have their work cut out for them, but in a good way! They will put new strategies in place to commit to long-term projects. It is a magnificent card that announces great stability, whether emotional or professional!

23 – Traffic

The Traffic card is on the whole a good card. The 23rd card of the Oracle de Belline, the Traffic card favours exchanges and communication. It symbolises travel and trips. When drawing this card, the querent is about to enter a period rich in communication! Everything is going to move for them! With Traffic, there is no question at all of taking one's time and pausing, quite the opposite! You make new acquaintances, you launch into new activities, things are really moving! It is also a very good card for travellers!

24 – News

The News card in the Oracle de Belline is neither bad nor positive. It is a neutral card that announces the arrival of news. Letter, email, phone call… whatever the means by which you receive this news, when you draw this card a message will soon be delivered to you, no matter what. So keep your eyes open if you are waiting for a reply from someone. In matters of the heart, it may be a token of affection; professionally, you may receive the answer to a job offer you applied for. Whatever the case, messages will be delivered to you and they will be important enough to change the course of your life.

25 – Pleasures

The Pleasures card is a superb card! Influenced by the planet Venus, the 25th card of the Oracle de Belline wishes well to whoever draws it! This card favours artistic activities and festive gatherings! Pleasures are multiplied tenfold; you get together with friends and family and feel wonderfully good! The querent is entering a period of great joy and serenity! They will feel more fulfilled than ever and will devote themselves to their passions, well surrounded by the people they love.

26 – Peace

Peace is a very beautiful card influenced by the planet Venus. The 26th card of Belline, Peace brings, as its name suggests, great serenity to whoever draws it. After a turbulent period, the querent will finally be able to rest. No more arguments, no more problems, life becomes plain sailing! And that does you a world of good! Relationships become cordial again, based on mutual understanding, projects run perfectly and health is set fair. Isn't that wonderful?

27 – Union

The Union card is the 27th card of the Oracle de Belline. Influenced by Venus, Union symbolises perfect harmony between two people. By drawing this card, the querent will enter into new partnerships. At work, this may mean an association with a trusted colleague. In love, it is time to commit and to unite for better or for worse! The Union card is an excellent card that favours exchanges and the signing of contracts.

28 – Family

The Family card is a positive card strongly influenced by the planet of love, Venus. The 28th card of the Oracle de Belline, the Family card brings the querent together with the people closest to them. It is a time for getting together at festivities and returning to family traditions… Family can refer to blood ties as well as to friends or colleagues for whom the querent feels great affection. Feelings are strong and sincere, based on mutual trust. This card is pleasant to draw because it means you are well surrounded in life.

29 – Love

The Love card is going to turn heads! The 29th card of the Oracle de Belline, the Love card sends, as its name suggests, love to whoever draws it! A happy period is about to arrive in the querent's life! Love is knocking at their door! A beautiful romantic encounter is on the cards! The querent's life shines brightly, whatever the area! It is a period of luck, and warm events come along, to the querent's great delight!

30 – The Table

The Table card is one of the neutral cards of the Oracle de Belline. The 30th card of the deck, influenced by Venus, the planet of love, the Table card invites the querent to draw closer to others, to receive and to give in return. In a professional reading, the Table symbolises meetings and the sharing of ideas, as well as big company celebrations. On an emotional level, the Table will reflect a need to reconnect with loved ones and to share good times with them in all simplicity. The Table is a strong symbol of discussion; this card can be either positive or negative, depending on the other cards around it.

31 – Passions

The Passions card is the 31st card of the Oracle de Belline. Ruled by Venus, the planet of love, it symbolises heightened feelings. Butterflies in the stomach, love at first sight… Emotions are vivid and intense, but be careful: passion is often fleeting. Heightened emotionality raises fears of negative feelings such as jealousy, touchiness, anger… So be cautious with this card with a double meaning. The querent will need to balance their emotions and not get carried away.

32 – Wickedness

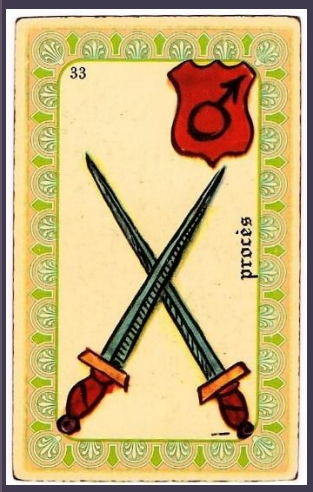

The Wickedness card in the Oracle de Belline is a very negative card. When you draw this card, be wary of those around you. There are malicious people around you. The atmosphere is not healthy and you risk paying the price for someone else's wrongdoing. Be wary of jealous and envious people. Arguments may break out around you. You will be stabbed in the back; it is important to protect yourself to the fullest if you do not want to suffer the consequences.

33 – Lawsuit

The Lawsuit card is one of the worst cards in the Oracle de Belline deck. This card, ruled by the planet Mars, god of war in Roman mythology, often comes up when the querent is trapped in a struggle between themselves and another person. It will then represent painful legal proceedings or, failing that, quarrels that are difficult to live through. It is a period the querent has to endure, and they will need to find the right arguments to settle their disputes. Be patient, things improve with time!

34 – Despotism

The Despotism card is the 34th card of the Oracle de Belline. It is a very negative card that brings nothing but worries to whoever draws it. The Despotism card shows the many constraints the querent is living with. When it appears in a reading, it indicates a lack of freedom and a tendency to let oneself be dominated by others. You no longer live your life the way you want. It is time to put a stop to it and take back your place. This will require a little patience, but it is essential to take back the reins of your life when you draw the Despotism card.

35 – Enemies

The Enemies card belongs to the family of the planet Mars in the Oracle de Belline. Like many cards influenced by this planet, the Enemies card is very negative. It sheds light on the querent's harmful entourage. Problems are on the way! Betrayal, jealousy, slander… For whoever draws the Enemies card, the point will be to find out who wishes them harm and in what way. Distrust is called for; you must trust no one for a while…

36 – Negotiations

The Negotiations card is neither good nor bad. The 36th card of the Oracle de Belline, the Negotiations card invites discussion. If there are conflicts, it is important to defuse them by sitting down and talking. Not listening to the other person is a bad habit; only honest and calm exchanges can resolve a stormy situation. The querent must put their arguments across calmly and above all not give in to anger. Problems will be resolved through discussion and reasoned exchanges.

37 – Fire

The Fire card is a card influenced by the planet Mars. The 37th card of the Oracle de Belline, it brings courage and power to whoever draws it. Thanks to Fire, the querent is determined to overcome every situation they may face. They have the will to win and remain fixed on their goal. Nothing can turn the querent from their path; success is not far away! Energy is at its peak, and even if there may be a long battle to get what one wants, one remains focused on one's goal and courageous in all circumstances.

38 – Accident

The Accident card is a very bad card, like many cards influenced by the planet Mars in the Oracle de Belline. The 38th card of the deck, it is never pleasant to draw. It announces dramas that happen suddenly and unexpectedly. An upheaval then takes place in the querent's life, and they will need to be well prepared to face the news. In love, it may be a break-up following numerous arguments, whereas in professional life it could mean a dismissal. The Accident is never wished for; the querent endures it and their life is then turned completely upside down.

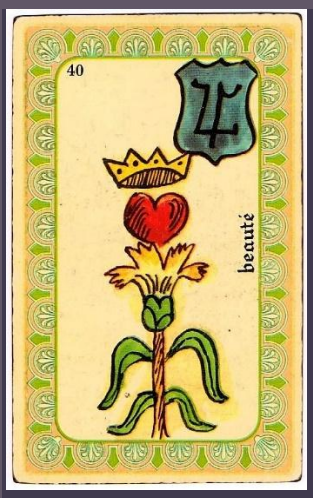

39 – Support

The Support card in the Oracle de Belline is a rather positive card. It generally announces help from an outside person. Protection and security are granted to the querent who draws this card in their spread. This card represents support and outside help. At work, Support announces a prosperous period in which you meet important people who can help carry your projects to success. In love, the Support card will represent a protective, reassuring person with whom you feel good. Couples will see their relationship grow stronger and will lay new stones strengthening their union.

40 – Beauty

The Beauty card is the 1st card of the Jupiter family in the Oracle de Belline. Jupiter is a planet that symbolises happiness and fulfilment. The 40th card of the deck is a wonderful card that fills the querent's life with wonder. When a person draws the Beauty card, their whole world lights up! Luck arrives; everything that may have been conflictual or problematic is resolved and gives way to pure happiness. It is truly a wonderful period for the querent, who should make the most of it and be aware that the harmony they are in is a true blessing.

41 – Inheritance

The Inheritance card is the 41st card of the Oracle de Belline. It is neither good nor bad. When you draw the Inheritance card in a divination reading, Belline helps you use past experiences to approach a current issue. By drawing on their memories and surrounding themselves with people who have known them for a long time, the querent will then have the ability to move towards a promising future. Every experience, whether good or bad, allows you to learn and to rise to a higher level. This card invites you to undertake an introspection into the very depths of your roots.

42 – Wisdom

The Wisdom card is one of the positive cards of the Oracle de Belline. Bringing protection, this card also reflects knowledge, learning and intuition. People who draw the Wisdom card may be receptive to the occult arts and practise clairvoyance themselves. Wisdom brings balance to the querent. It is a good period to embark on new learning. Exams will be favoured thanks to intelligence, open-mindedness and discernment. Success will take time, but the querent has all the resources needed to reach their goal.

43 – Fame

The Fame card is one of the positive cards of the Oracle de Belline. Ensuring success, this card symbolises the tenacity and the efforts made by the querent to move towards their life goals. Success is at hand and the rewards are many. Whoever draws the Fame card can be proud of how far they have come! They are recognised for their work and can congratulate themselves on having managed to build their life as they wish. A wonderfully prosperous period lies ahead!

44 – Hazard

The Hazard card is the 44th card of the Oracle de Belline. Symbolising luck, the Hazard card offers whoever draws it a prosperous period full of surprises and great joys! The querent will then be lucky enough to be offered everything they hope for! Situations, encounters and messages bringing them great happiness will mark their path. It is a helping hand from the universe to help the querent move forward in life and to congratulate them on the journey they have made.

45 – Happiness

The Happiness card is one of the most beautiful cards of the Oracle de Belline. The 45th card, it symbolises pure happiness. Hope is reborn after a difficult period, harmony with loved ones is at its height, gifts fall from the sky. What more could you ask for? A great period of joy lies ahead for whoever draws the Happiness card. The clouds disperse and success takes their place! The querent would do well to make the most of these moments of pleasure!

46 – Misfortune

The Misfortune card is one of the very negative cards of the Oracle de Belline. The 46th card of the deck, it is influenced by the planet Saturn, symbol of slowness and inertia. With this card, Belline announces a painful situation for the querent to live through. A difficult event will be hard to understand and to accept. A long period of incomprehension lies ahead. The querent will then need to be patient and use this situation to take the time to reflect on the causes and consequences of this painful event to overcome.

47 – Sterility

The Sterility card is one of the cards influenced by the planet Saturn in the Oracle de Belline. This planet is a very slow celestial body. From a spiritual point of view, the 47th card of the deck is positive, offering whoever draws it the opportunity to take time to awaken to a higher level. But in everyday life, the Sterility card puts the querent through an unwanted period of standstill that is difficult to live through. To welcome this pause as well as possible, the querent is asked to see this standstill as an opportunity to take the time to reflect on the situation that is troubling them.

48 – Fate

The Fate card is the 48th card of the Oracle de Belline. At first glance, the card, depicting an old man holding a scythe in his hand, can be very frightening! Indeed, its symbolism can represent death in its purest form, but above all it represents the end of something. Neither good nor bad in the long term, the Fate card nevertheless announces an unwanted change for the querent, but one that must be lived through if they want to move forward in their life. This card asks the querent for courage and strength to overcome this difficult ordeal.

49 – Grace

The Grace card in the Oracle de Belline is one of the most beautiful cards in the deck. Depicting a dove and a pyramid, this card marks a fulfilling event in the querent's life. Wonderful things happen, bringing them great joy. Grace enters their life. If the querent is in a barren or difficult period, Grace brings them the clarity needed to move forward. Grace represents protection, peace and accomplishment; what more could you ask for?

50 – Ruin

The Ruin card in the Oracle de Belline is a negative card, announcing sudden losses in the querent's life. The destruction of solid foundations is to be expected. News arrives that causes the querent sorrow and calls into question everything they have built. This card comes up in a reading when it is time to turn the page and write another chapter of one's life. Even though Ruin is a negative card, it always announces a period of rebuilding that the querent needs.

51 – Delay

The Delay card is the 51st card of the Oracle de Belline. It is neither negative nor positive. The Delay card is one of the cards influenced by Saturn, and as such it has a slow dynamic. As its name suggests, the Delay card symbolises setbacks and impatience. The querent who draws this card will feel powerless in the face of how a situation unfolds. However much they want time to pass quickly, events will move slowly and will have to be endured. It is not a bad card. On the contrary, Delay calls for patience. The best things in life often take time!

52 – Cloister

The Cloister card is one of the negative cards of the Oracle de Belline. Like most cards influenced by Saturn, the Cloister reflects the slowness of a situation. Time is drawn out, endured… One feels shut in and sad; life is experienced as a burden. Whoever draws this card risks spending a long period reflecting while cutting themselves off from the outside world. Sadness and loneliness are hard to bear. The Cloister invites the querent to meditate in order to regain the energy they need to move on to the next stage of their life.

The Blue Card

The Blue Card of the Oracle de Belline is a very positive card that highlights success and happiness. The Blue Card has no number; it is a neutral card, without any planetary influence, unlike the other cards of the Oracle de Belline.
When you draw the Blue Card, all the negative meanings of the other cards in the reading are weakened. The Blue Card brings you luck and happiness in all circumstances.

Whatever the reading, the Blue Card makes it positive even when there are negative cards. It is a magic card that brings you protection even in hard times.
